MEDIEVAL FAYRE

14th March 2019

Good morrow dear Kings, Queens, Dukes, Counts, Knights, Noblemen/women, Lords/Ladies and other folk of fortress Richmond Park,

Hear ye, hear ye! We would like to extend a cordial invitation to all parents and townfolk of Richmond Park to our Spring Medieval Fayre on Monday 18th March from 2 - 6pm. Children and parents will be able to take part in a wide range of medieval activities, including archery, falconry, apple bobbing, hobby horse races, bouncy castle and much, much more. Please come along with hungry bellies to join us for a medieval feast as the PTA prepare a delicious BBQ and food stalls. Bring enough pounds, shillings and pence as you may even have the opportunity to splat a teacher in the stocks (I wonder who that will be?). All coinage raised will go towards the PTA fund, which will in turn be distributed to ye olde school to buy new equipment and resources for your children.

Feel free to adorn yourself and your children in your medieval finery (this is just for fun, so please don't worry or go to any additional expense if you don't have anything to hand). The PTA will be crowning a 'King and Queen of the Fayre' based on the best fancy dress costume, where the children will take their honourable place on the royal thrones to oversee the medieval festivities.

I thank thee noble men and women of our PTA for all of their hard work in arranging this medieval extravaganza!

If you don't attend, it may be off with your heads! ;-)

Dilly dilly,

Sir D Cooper of Llangennech
(Acting Headteacher)
