

No Change for Schools in Wales on June 1st 2020

Kirsty Williams, Education Minister for Wales stated today (May 7th 2020) that with regard to school closures in lockdown due to the COVID-19 pandemic that:

“The situation for schools in Wales will not change on 1 June. You have my guarantee that we will give everyone time to plan ahead of a next phase starting.”

“Any decision to increase the operation of schools will be communicated well in advance. We are working closely with local authorities to ensure that schools are supported in this preparation work.”

“In the meantime, critical workers and those who need to use schools or hubs for your children should continue do so.”
